

DOWNTOWN RACINE

History Buff DAY TRIP

Downtown Racine is an artsy, hip, historic, lakefront town. Rich with history from unbelievable architecture, Underground Railroad stops and 3 museums. From an incredible selection of locally owned restaurants (Asian, Pakistani, Spanish, Italian, Mexican, Greek, Thai, Cajun) to the largest beach on this side of Lake Michigan, cool Frank Lloyd Wright architecture and AMAZING shopping, you can easily fill a day exploring!

For more ideas exploring history visit: racinedowntown.com/delve-into-history/

ARCHITECTURAL TOUR

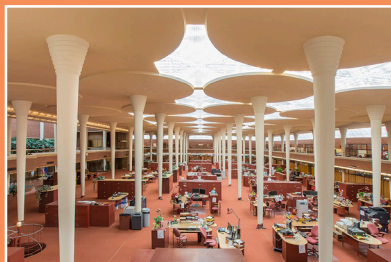

racinedowntown.com/delve-into-history/
Self-guided, mobile friendly exploration of Downtown Racine's beautifully preserved architecture and marvel as you learn about the amazing businesses that have occupied these historic buildings through the years.

UNDERGROUND RAILROAD

716 College Ave. | 262-632-1686
firstpresracine.org
First Presbyterian Church offers a tour to view what was probably a former stop on the escape route for slaves & includes a tunnel where slaves have hidden and walls of quilts that tells a story.

SC JOHNSON TOURS

1525 Howe St. | scjohnson.com/tours
Tours feature the Frank Lloyd Wright-designed Administration Building and Research Tower, as well as Foster + Partners-designed Fortaleza Hall.

MUSEUMS

With not one, but two premier museums—the Racine Art Museum, known for its contemporary craft and art, and the Racine Heritage Museum, which delves into the local history—visitors can immerse themselves in a diverse range of exhibits. Additionally, the Fire Department Museum offers a unique glimpse into the firefighting history of Racine.